To,

The Revenue Secretary to the Government of Mysore,
Bangalore.

Sir,

I have the honor to submit the enclosed Proceedings of some of the respectable inhabitants of Vadigenahalli, in the of Devanahalli Taluk, held on 26th February last for the formation of an Agricultural Bank in that place.

2. The number of members on the roll now is 16 and the Amildar reports that they are respectable and solvent.

3. The articles of Association are drawn up in the form adopted by the members of the Agricultural Bank at Palhalli

Palhalli.

4. The entrance fee is fixed at eight annas and the amount to be lent to each member does not exceed Rs. 1,000/- The rates of interest are six per cent on loans on security of immoveable property and on joint instalment bonds, and on Promissory notes for above hundred rupees.

5. The members pray for the grant of an advance of Rs. Ten thousand from Government and I beg to submit the application for the sanction of Government.

6. The scheme for the Establishment of Agricultural Banks contemplates to advance money on the united credit of the members. I, therefore, therefore, beg to solicit the favor of being informed if the local enquiry should extend to the detail of each member's credit based upon a fairly approximate value of his property.

I have the honor to be,
